Anointing of the Sick

Following all Masses September 21 & 22

Anyone facing illness, life challenges, and those seeking spiritual or emotional healing can be anointed.

God of our ancestors, we thank you for our children and our children's children. They are reminders from you about how precious life can be. We humbly ask for wisdom and patience as we take pride and wonder in our grandchildren. Those of us who now pray to you also seek your blessing upon these men and women who are our grandparents or who act in place of grandparents. Bless all the children and their parents and grandparents with your abundant grace. We ask all this through the intercession of Saints Joachim and Anne, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary, patron saints of grandparents, in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Reflections on Readings for the Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

"HERE IS YOUR GOD, HE COMES WITH VINDICATION; WITH DIVINE RECOMPENSE HE COMES TO SAVE YOU"

Our readings this Sunday draw a correlation between the prophesy of the Prophet Isaiah and the healing actions of Jesus. What Isaiah foretold long ago has begun to be fulfilled by Jesus who comes to save us, to open our ears and our eyes and our hearts to the word of God.

In our first reading (Isaiah 35:4-7), Isaiah offered consolation and restoration to a people afflicted and oppressed by the evils of their time. In many ways, our world today is just as afflicted and oppressed by the evils of our time. Isaiah foresaw of a time of great spiritual awakening.

In our Epistle reading (James 2:1-5), St. James teaches us that we are not to judge each other based on material wealth. Human dignity is not influenced by wealth or status or possessions. Our faith in the "glorious Lord Jesus Christ" is the great equalizer. Christians show no partiality between the rich and the poor, the weak and the strong, the powerful and the powerless.

In our Gospel reading (Mark 7:31-37), Jesus entered into the pagan territory of the Decapolis, where their ears were closed to the word of God. Jesus healed a deaf man with a speech impediment, echoing Isaiah's prophesy of our first reading. They were astonished and declared, "He has done all things well." This event not only underscored the healing power of Jesus, but also His divinity. "Here is your God . . . He comes to save you" is the echo from Isaiah.

Jesus' healing of the deaf and mute man should be seen also for its deeper, spiritual significance. It is Jesus who "comes with recompense to save us." It is He who opens our eyes and our ears and our hearts to the Gospel and allows us to speak what we hear. It is He who takes us away from the cacophony of voices that drown out God, who touches us and whispers in our ear, "Ephphatha - be opened!" And it is He who gives us the grace and the courage to proclaim the good news that we hear. "Be strong, fear not!"
